

MULTI-LEVEL PAINTING AND DRAWING IN FLORENCE, ITALY

TUESDAY, MAY 29 TO WEDNESDAY, JUNE 13, 2012

Travel to breathtaking Florence, Italy, for an unforgettable experience in art and Italian culture. Study observational and plein-air painting and drawing in the heart of this historic city. Explore Rome, Milan and other places of interest. Earn up to six credits in this rigorous course for students of all skill levels.

☞ Fee of $1,855 includes lodging, ground transportation and shared studio space at Lorenzo de Medici Campus. Airfare, meals, art supplies, museum fees and tuition are extra. The class meets for two sessions before and two sessions after the trip. ☞ For class dates and more information, contact Brad Killam, (630) 942-2421 or Killam@cod.edu, or the Field and Interdisciplinary Studies office, (630) 942-2356.

For Americans with Disabilities Act accommodations, call (630) 942-2141 (voice) or (630) 858-9692 (TDD).

