

International Traffic in Arms (ITAR) Compliance

Tuesday, Oct. 20, 2009

9:30 to 11:30 a.m.

2525 Cabot Drive, Suite 201, Lisle

$50

Join Bart M. McMillan, a partner with Baker and McKenzie LLP in Chicago, for this workshop exploring the dangers and risks associated with ITAR, the elements of a good compliance, the legal implications and the regulations that apply to companies.

Who should attend

Companies whose activities are subject to ITAR, including domestic and international defense project suppliers.

About the speaker

Bart M. McMillan's law practice concerns international trade compliance, including matters arising under U.S. export controls, trade sanctions, anti-boycott rules, customs laws, trade agreements and the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act. He has significant experience working with companies in the aerospace and defense sectors.

To register or for more information, please call
(630) 942-2600.

Hosted by the Center for Entrepreneurship at College of DuPage

This workshop will explore:

- ITAR and its administration by the State Department
- Articles, services and activities (including domestic activities) subject to ITAR
- Registration and licensing
- Special compliance risks associated with foreign employees or visitors
- Brokering rules
- Penalties, patterns of violations and enforcement
- Elements of a good ITAR compliance program

Center for Entrepreneurship Illinois International Trade Center

2525 Cabot Drive, Suite 201, Lisle 60532
(630) 942-2600 / (630) 505-4931 fax / galtol@cod.edu

