

Centers for Independent Learning Checklist for Success

- Regular contact with the instructor
- Careful reading of all information provided
- Acquiring the required text and study materials
- Effective utilization of media and supplemental components
- Reading and studying text and related materials
- Timely completion of assignments and examinations as directed by the individual instructor
- Student's active participation throughout the term