

College of DuPage
Native American Studies
Committee
Presents

Honoring the # NATIVE WAY

FEATURING
MARILYN YOUNGBIRD AND
CHUCK MEDICINE BEAR WATSON
& SON

Wednesday April 4, 2007

7:00 - 9:00 p.m.

SRC 2800

This annual event is an opportunity for learning about contemporary Indian culture and art.

Marilyn Youngbird is a fifth generation descendant of Sakakawea who traces her heritage from the Arrikara, Hidatsa and Mandan people, located on the Fort Berthold Indian Reservation in North Dakota. She is a board member of the American Indian Ritual Object Repatriation Foundation.

Chuck Watson and his son will demonstrate a Grass Dance, based on their family traditions. Watson is a teacher in the Oak Park School District and an instructor at College of DuPage.

For more information, contact Marilyn Johnston at (630) 942-2172 or Jackie McGrath at (630) 942-2709 or mcgrathj@cod.edu