

Standards of Academic Progress (Effective Fall 2005)

Status	Standard	Result	Progress
Academic Warning	Attempted less than 12 credits with cumulative GPA less than 1.5	Meeting with counselor strongly recommended to develop Success Agreement . Standards of Academic Progress discussed.
Probation I	Attempted 12 or more credits with cumulative GPA and semester GPA less than 2.0	Appointment with counselor required . Completion of Success Agreement required . A hold will remain on student's record until cumulative GPA reaches 2.0.	Student will no longer be on probation once cumulative GPA is 2.0. Continued Probation: Student has previously been on probation and will continue on probation with registration subject to requirements outlined in Success Agreement until cumulative GPA is 2.0.
Probation II	After one semester on Probation I status with cumulative GPA and semester GPA less than 2.0	Appointment with counselor required . Completion of Success Agreement required . Enrollment limited to not more than 13 credits . Including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Course choice equal to number of credit courses successfully completed with C grade or higher during previous semester/ And/or if no courses were successfully completed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Repeat of courses with D or F grade. • Developmental courses (0 level). • Career/personal development courses, i.e. Education 1105, 1110, 1115, Human Services 1105. • Studio/activity courses, i.e. physical education, art, music. A hold will remain on student's record until cumulative GPA reaches 2.0.	Student will no longer be on probation once cumulative GPA is 2.0. Continued Probation: Student has previously been on probation and will continue on probation with limited registration subject to requirements outlined in Success Agreement until cumulative GPA is 2.0. A full-time course load is not guaranteed at Probation II status.
Dropped for Low Scholarship I (Suspension)	After one semester on Probation II status with cumulative GPA and semester GPA less than 2.0	One semester automatic suspension. When grade reports are issued, student will be withdrawn from current semester courses and will be issued a refund. A hold will remain on student's record until cumulative GPA reaches 2.0.	If reinstated, after serving one semester automatic suspension (excluding summer), student follows Probation II status limitations. Neither reinstatement nor a full-time course load is guaranteed.
Dropped for Low Scholarship II (Suspension)	On Probation II status for one semester with cumulative GPA and semester GPA less than 2.0 after returning from one semester automatic suspension	12 months automatic suspension. A hold will remain on the student's record until cumulative GPA reaches 2.0.	After serving 12 consecutive months automatic suspension, student follows Probation II status limitations if reinstated after appeal. Neither reinstatement, nor a full-time course load is guaranteed.

Once a student is restored to good standing, and if subsequently the cumulative GPA drops below 2.0, the student will re-enter the Standards of Academic Progress at Probation I status.