

Standards of Academic Progress

Status	Standard	Result	Progress
Academic Warning	Attempted less than 12 undergraduate academic credits with cumulative GPA less than 1.5	Meeting with counselor strongly recommended to develop Success Agreement . Standards of Academic Progress discussed.
Academic Probation I	Attempted 12 or more undergraduate academic credits with cumulative GPA and semester GPA less than 2.0	Appointment with counselor required . Completion of Success Agreement required . A hold will remain on student's record until cumulative GPA reaches 2.0.	Student will no longer be on probation once cumulative GPA is 2.0.
Academic Probation II	After one semester on Probation I status with cumulative GPA and semester GPA less than 2.0	Appointment with counselor required Completion of Success Agreement required . Enrollment limited to not more than 13 credits . And may include the following options: ∞ Course choice equal to number of credit courses successfully completed with C grade or higher during previous semester/ And/or if no courses were successfully completed: ∞ Repeat of courses with D or F grade. ∞ Developmental courses (0 level). ∞ Career/personal development courses, i.e. Education 1105, 1110, 1115, Human Services 1105. ∞ Studio/activity courses, i.e. physical education, art, music. A hold will remain on student's record until cumulative GPA reaches 2.0.	Student will no longer be on probation once cumulative GPA is 2.0. A full-time course load is not guaranteed at Academic Probation II status.
Academic Suspension I	After one semester on Probation II status with cumulative GPA and semester GPA less than 2.0	One semester suspension. This lasts for one semester after the term during which the GPA triggered the suspension. When grade reports are issued, student will be withdrawn from current semester courses and will be issued a refund. A registration hold will remain on student's record until cumulative GPA reaches 2.0.	If reinstated, after serving one semester automatic suspension, student follows Probation II status limitations. Reinstatement or a full-time course load is not guaranteed.
Academic Suspension II	On Probation II status for one semester with cumulative GPA and semester GPA less than 2.0 after returning from one semester automatic suspension	12 months automatic suspension. A hold will remain on the student's record until cumulative GPA reaches 2.0	After serving 12 months automatic suspension, if reinstated, student follows Probation II status with limitations. Reinstatement or a full-time course load is not guaranteed.

Once a student is restored to good standing, and if subsequently the cumulative GPA drops below 2.0, the student will re-enter the Standards of Academic Progress at Probation I status. Definitions: GPA: Grade Point Average is based on completed credits (no W's, no I's)
Audit: Not counted in GPA. Withdrawal: Not counted in GPA. Incomplete: Not counted in GPA. Attempted: What classes you were enrolled in and a grade provided for.