

ONE BOOK, ONE CAMPUS SELECTION

This I Believe: Enriching Our College Community through Shared Ethical Values

September 15, 2009 by Jenn

What will you be doing this Fall? Discovering new things about yourself and the world around you? Developing plans for your future? Doing something new, great, exciting?

Every fall at C.O.D. 3D works with students, staff, faculty and the community to kickstart conversations that can help you achieve these goals. 3D— and you guessed what those three Ds stand for, right?— challenges you to think critically about the important issues which effect us all.

This year's 3D focus is Nurture|Nature—Enriching Our College Community through Shared Ethical Values. Throughout the academic year, 3D will be promoting discussions and activities which will encourage exploration of the explore the values cited in College of DuPage's Institutional Priorities: Integrity, Honesty, Respect, and Responsibility.

To spark the conversation, this year's One Book, One Campus selection is This I Believe: The Personal Philosophies of Remarkable Mean and Women. Here's a description of the book from the website GoodReads:

Based on the NPR series of the same name, This I Believe features eighty Americans from the famous to the unknown; completing the thought that the book's title begins. Each piece compels readers to rethink not only how they have arrived at their own personal beliefs but also the extent to which they share them with others. . . The result is a stirring and provocative trip inside the minds and hearts of a diverse group of people whose beliefs; and the incredibly varied ways in which they choose to express them reveal the American spirit at its best.

We hope that This I Believe will inspire you, too. Borrow the book from the Library (more copies will be arriving soon), visit the This I Believe website (<http://thisibelieve.org>) and keep an eye out for 3D activities throughout this semester and next.

Interested in sharing what you believe? Tell your stories on the 3D blog!