

Photos and text
by Dan Bowers
Photography Editor

Instructors and faculty members throughout campus have put their office space to work in various ways. Inspiration is the theme in some of their offices, some store additional reference materials to assist them with instruction, while others utilize their space to convey a message.

Chuck Steele, Coordinator of Student Activities says, "Superman represents leadership." Superman figures and posters are theme in his office.

OFFICE SPACE

above: Assistant Professor of History, Brian Moran, stores additional history reference materials he has accumulated.

left: Crime scene tape decorates the office door of Associate Professor of Criminal Justice, Theo Darden.

below: Andrea Richmond, Student Activities Coordinator says, "I like images of strong women." Wonder woman, as well as other images of strong women decorate the walls of her office.

