

Parents and students are greeted by COD student ambassadors at the main entrance of the SRC.

Grave Blevins tells a high school junior/senior about the advertising and design illustration program offered at COD.

Tables lined all the walls of the SRC. Students get a glimpse of construction, while the bridge connecting the SRC and Health and Science Building nears completion.

Junior/senior night was held Wednesday. Six hundred people attended of those 300 people toured the college. Last year about 1,000 people attended junior/senior night.

Photos and text by:
Amanda Kellermann
Photo Editor

