Knife accident

A student was leaning over, trying to pull a piece of paper out from under the wheels of a cabinet in TEC room 3004. He had an X-acto knife in his right hand while he was trying to dislodge the paper from beneath the cabinet. The paper jerked and the student jammed the X-acto knife into his leg. He thinks it went into his calf.

Two reporting officers arrived on the scene and observed the student lying on his back. He was on the floor with his right leg elevated and leaning against a drawing table. The student's leg was wrapped with paper towels and an ACE bandage soaked with blood.

The college nurse arrived and tended to the victim's injury. Glen Ellyn medical unit 22 arrived and transported the victim to Good Samaritan Hospital for further treatment.

Custodial Operations was contacted to clean up the blood.

Stolen phone

The complainant got out of class at 1:45 p.m. in AC 153. When he got to his vehicle, he realized that he forgot his cell phone in the classroom. He went back to his room and looked all over the classroom for his cell phone, but could not find it anywhere.

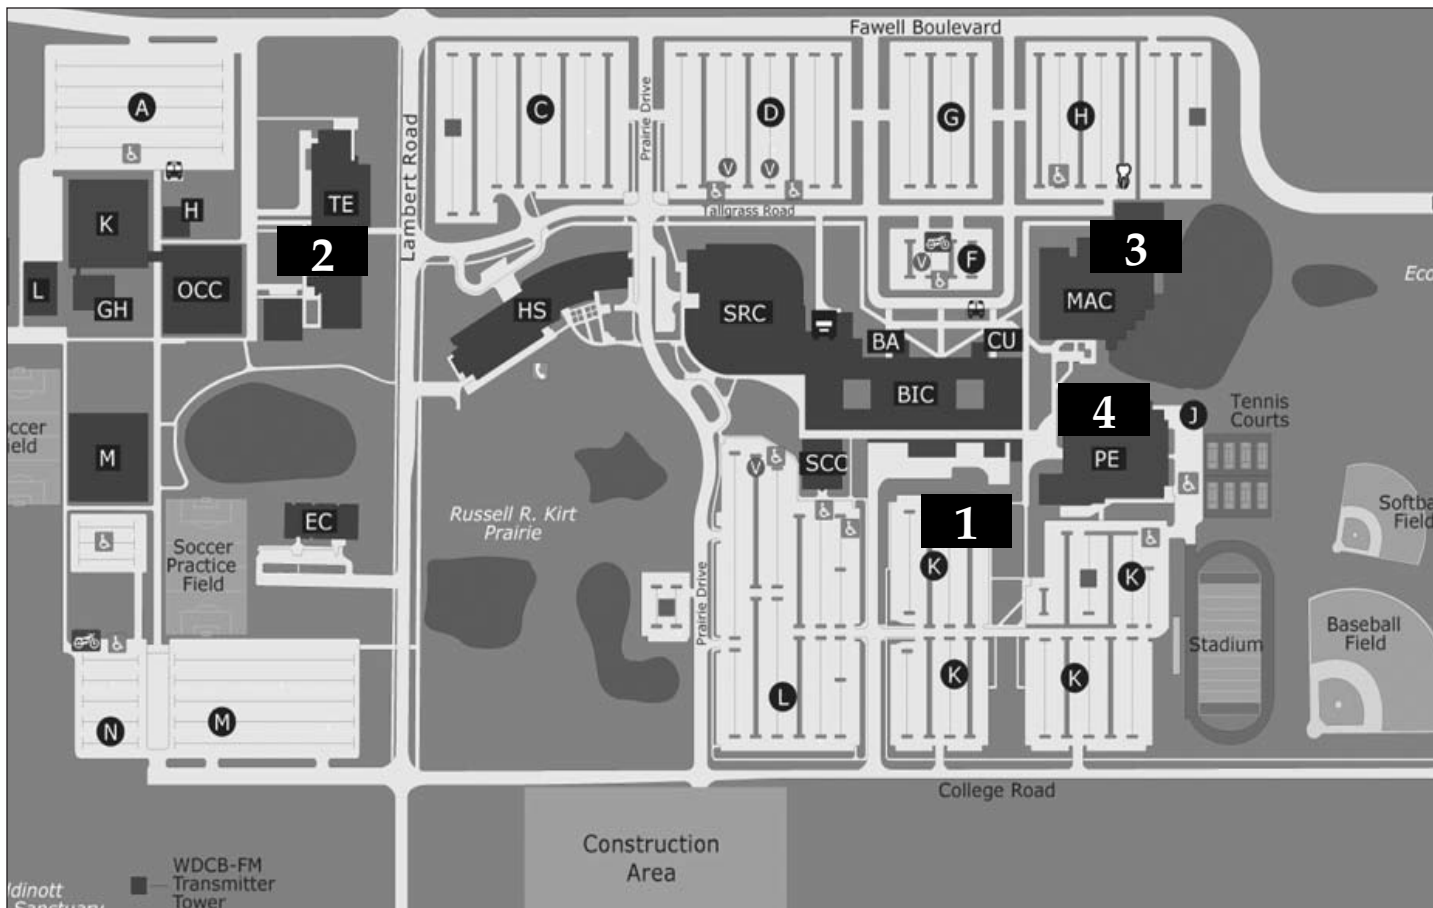

While he looked for his cell phone he did not see anyone in the area that looked suspicious. The complainant does not want to sign any criminal complaints. He would just like his cell phone back.

He already cancelled his phone so calls will not be able to be made to or from the phone.

1) Saturday, Oct. 17

Stolen phone

A football player for the college locked his phone in the locker during halftime. Sometime during the second half of the game, someone broke into his locker and stole his cell phone. There was a lock on the locker, but the lock was missing upon the football player's return. He has no idea who would have taken his phone.
