

For More Information:
Jane Ostergaard: osterg@cod.edu
630-942-2331
Mark Pearson: pearson@cod.edu
630-942-2763

 College of DuPage

Field and Interdisciplinary Studies

425 Fawell Blvd
Glen Ellyn, IL 60137
Phone (630-)942-2356
eggegi@cod.edu

Architecture of Florence, Rome and Tuscany 2012

May 14 – May 23

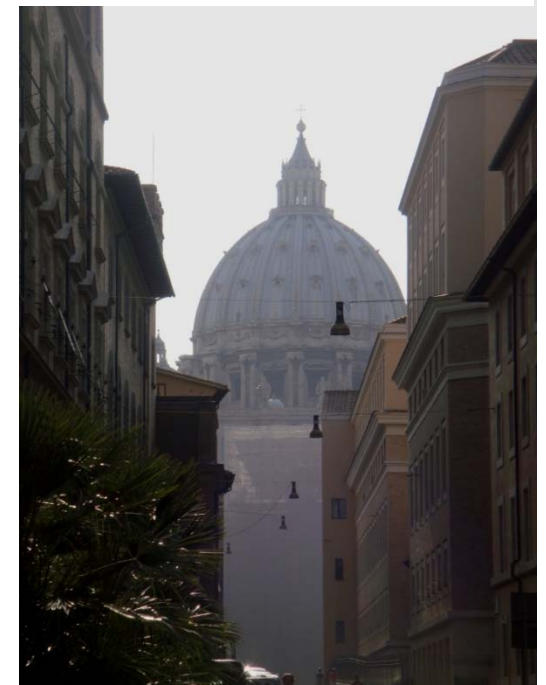

Each day will combine scheduled activities with free time where students can explore the cities. Our knowledgeable tour guide can offer guidance and suggestions for shopping, dining and entertainment activities.

- Florence
 - Duomo
 - Piazza della Signoria
 - Palazzo Vecchio
 - Piazza Sanata Maria Novella
 - San Lorenzo
 - Laurentian Library
 - Santa Croce
- SanGimignano
- Rome
 - Colosseum
 - Forum
 - Campidoglio
 - Vatican
 - Sistine Chapel
 - St Peter's Basilica
 - Castel Gandolfo
 - Trastevere
 - Pantheon

$2700, plus 1 credit tuition

- $500 at registration
- $1100 Nov 1
- $1100 Feb 1
- Includes:
 - Round-trip airfare
 - Triple occupancy hotel with European breakfast (single or double occupancy available at extra cost)
 - All admissions and tours
 - All internal travel costs
 - 3 dinners

Trip fees are non-refundable. Students are responsible for withdrawing from FIS courses through the FIS office. Students who do not pay their tuition bills are not automatically withdrawn from the courses. Prices and Itineraries are subject to change. Refunds are not given for unused portions of a field experience.

The Office of Academic Affairs has approved up to $830.00 as tuition reimbursement. Benefited employees may apply for their professional development funds for this trip, subject to approvals. Not all employees will qualify.