Helpful hints and tips for the live program include the following:

- Speak slowly during your presentation and answers
- Be prepared for discussion segments
- Have several questions about your topic for the program moderator.
- Keep your Q&A answers short and to the point to allow for the maximum amount of time for discussion
- When participating in a discussion talk to the panel and/or the moderator.
- When giving your presentation talk to the camera. If the is a live studio audience you can talk to the live studio audience.
