The Homeland Security Digital Library (HSDL) is the nation’s premier repository of policy related documents on homeland security. It is organized to support local, state and federal decision-making and analysis and structured to assist scholars and academics in homeland security research.

http://www.hSDL.org

The HSDL is the gateway to a wide range of authoritative resources on the subject of homeland security.

- RESOURCES: Search through the HSDL collection comprised of thousands of resources reviewed and selected by a professional staff of librarians and subject-area specialists.

- BROWSE TOPICS: Browse numerous subject categories to find materials specific to your homeland security research needs.

- QUICK LINKS REFERENCE PAGE: Direct access to important U.S. policy documents, presidential directives, national strategy documents, major laws, and CRS and GAO reports.

- DATABASES: Save time and research effort by simultaneously searching multiple databases and journals – using SeekOnce.

- ON THE HOME FRONT NEWS & REPORTS: Links to newly released reports, breaking news stories about trends and transitions in homeland security – updated daily.

- EVENTS & CONFERENCES: For professional development opportunities, view dates and links to current & up-coming homeland security related conferences and events.

- THESES & RESEARCH REPORTS: View cutting edge homeland security-related theses and research reports produced at the Naval Postgraduate School.

“Securing the Homeland through the Power of Information”

For information about access to the HSDL email us at hSDL@nps.edu

The HSDL is sponsored by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security’s Office of Grants & Training Center for Homeland Defense & Security at the Naval Postgraduate School | NPS Dudley Knox Library