LIGHT IN ARCHITECTURE

Milwaukee Art Museum
Santiago Calatrava
Milwaukee
2001
Beyeler Foundation Museum
Renzo Piano
Basel Switzerland
1992
Arab Institute
Jean Nouvel
Paris, France
1988
Musee Quai Branley
Jean Nouvel
Paris, France
2006
Myyramaki Church and Parish Center
Juha Leiviska
Vantaa Finland
1980
Chapel of St. Ignatious, Steven Holl, Seattle 1994-1997

Kiasma Museum of Contemporary Art, Steven Holl, 1998, Helsinki Finland
Pulitzer Center, 2000, Tadao Ando, St. Louis

http://www.pulitzerarts.org/architecture-commissioned-art/

Office Space, La Defense
UN Studio
Almere, Netherlands
2004
3M Radiant Color Film, a foil used for perfume bottles.
Solar Umbrella House
Pugh + Scarpa
Venice California
2005
Conversion of 650sf Bungalow into a 1900 sf residence

Inspired by Paul Rudolph’s 1953 Umbrella House in Sarasota, Florida, which originally featured a wooden trellis to shield the structure from scorching rays.

A translucent canopy of 89 grid-connected solar panels—the “solar umbrella”—wraps the addition’s roof and west elevation.

Generates 95% of the electricity needed for the building.
SUMMIT PUBLIC LIBRARY, SUMMIT IL