Nature of Materials - 4 week project
Stockholm Library
An Abstract Model of a Precedent Study. Erik Gunnar Apslund’s main idea in the Stockholm Library was to design a library that could expand and grow over time, just as the minds of those who inhabit the library would expand and grow. My model has a telescoping effect that breaks out of the concrete structure to emphasize growing while expanding. Requirements were to use wood, concrete, metal and glass.