What is ALEKS PPL?
ALEKS Placement, Preparation, and Learning (PPL) is a placement tool. It has a remediation module called “Prep and Learn” to help you review topics you may have forgotten or need to practice. The results from Test #1 are used to form a study plan individualized to your knowledge level.

How do I get started on ALEKS?
Go to inside.cod.edu, log in and in the Math Placement Test section click on the link Test 1 (unproctored) or Prep and learning Module.

How many attempts do I have?
You have a total of 4 attempts. Test 1 is unproctored and taken at home. It does not count as a placement score, but establishes a personalized study plan. The other 3 attempts are taken at the Glen Ellyn Testing Center or in the Learning Commons in Addison, Naperville, Carol Stream or Westmont. All attempts must be completed within one year of creating an ALEKS account. An ALEKS account is created the first time you click Test 1 (unproctored) or Prep and learning Module at inside.cod.edu.

How long will it take to complete the test?
The test has no time limit. Allow yourself enough time to complete your test without hurrying—at least 2 hours. No tests will be started 90 minutes before closing time.

Which score will be used for placement?
The highest score from the three proctored tests will be used to determine placement. Test results are available immediately after testing.

Can I use a calculator?
An on-screen calculator will be provided when the ALEKS PPL determines one is necessary. All questions on the ALEKS test are free-response (no multiple choice). Scratch paper will be provided. You cannot use your own calculator.

How long are my scores valid?
Each score is valid for 1 year.
