Bankruptcy Information

If you are or were in bankruptcy, this bill may include amounts for pre-bankruptcy charges. You should not pay pre-bankruptcy amounts; they are for your information only. Explanation of Surcharges

Surcharges include (i) a Regulatory Charge (which helps defray various government charges we pay including government number administration and license fees), (ii) a Federal Universal Service Charge (and, if applicable, a State Universal Service Charge) to recover charges imposed on us by the government to support universal service; and (iii) an Administrative Charge, which helps defray certain expenses we incur, including: charges we, or our agents, pay local telephone companies for delivering calls from our customers to their customers; fees and assessments on our network facilities and services; property taxes; and the costs we incur responding to regulatory obligations. Please note that these are Verizon Wireless charges, not taxes. These charges, and what's included, are subject to change from time to time.

Effective January 11, 2023, the definition of the Administrative Charge will be modified to help defray and recover certain direct and indirect costs we or our agents incur, including: (a) costs of complying with regulatory and industry obligations and programs, such as E911, wireless local number portability, and wireless tower mandate costs; (b) property taxes; and (c) costs associated with our network, including facilities (e.g. leases), operations, maintenance and protection, and costs paid to other companies for network services.

Please note that this surcharge is a Verizon Wireless charge, not a tax or government-imposed fee. This charge, and what's included, is subject to change from time to time.

Apple Music Price Change

Beginning January 11, 2023, Apple will increase the subscription price for Apple Music from $9.99/mo to $10.99/mo. If you subscribe to Apple Music through Verizon, you will see this new price on the first Verizon bill you receive after January 11, 2023.

If you do not subscribe to Apple Music through Verizon, you will see no change to your monthly bill.
