Terms and conditions on the Customer's order form or other similar document shall not be binding on Bloomsbury.

4. Prices & Quotations

Bloomsbury reserves the right to increase a quoted price in the event that the Customer requests a variation to the Goods or Services agreed.

5. Orders

Orders will be deemed to have been placed when an email or other written confirmation has been received from a responsible executive of the Customer's company. For email invitations, online fulfilment projects and direct marketing files it is a requirement of Bloomsbury, that the email piece, online form or mail piece shall be approved by a Bloomsbury representative before an order can be confirmed and any Goods or Services despatched.

6. Right to Sub-contract

Unless otherwise agreed Bloomsbury shall be entitled to sub-contract all or any part of the supply of the Goods or Services.

7. Timetable

Bloomsbury will use its reasonable commercial endeavours to supply the Goods or Services within the quoted time (normally within a maximum of seven days from order or otherwise as agreed in writing) but time will not be of the essence within the contract.

8. Copyright

The Customer acknowledges that the rights to the Goods and Services are owned or controlled by Bloomsbury and that the Goods and Services are protected by English copyright laws, international treaty provisions and all other applicable national laws.

9. Risk of Loss

The risk of loss or damage to the Goods shall pass to the Customer upon delivery of the Goods.

10. Payment

All invoices of Bloomsbury shall be paid by the Customer within thirty (30) days of the date of invoice unless otherwise agreed in writing by Bloomsbury. New Customers or other Customers out of terms may be expected to pay in advance for their Goods or Services.

11. Disputed Invoice

If any amount of an invoice is disputed then the Customer shall inform Bloomsbury of the grounds for such dispute within seven days of delivery of the Goods or Services and shall pay to Bloomsbury the value of the invoice less the disputed amount in accordance with these payment terms. Once settlement of the dispute has been agreed, any sum then outstanding shall also be payable in accordance with these payment terms.

12. Interest

In the event of late payment, Bloomsbury may charge interest on the amount outstanding before and after judgement at the maximum rate permitted by applicable law. In addition, invoices unpaid for more than 60 days after the invoice date will incur a surcharge of either $50 or 5% of the outstanding amount, whichever sum is greater.

13. Invoice

Bloomsbury shall raise the invoice in relation to the Goods or Services received by the Customer. If any amount of the invoice is disputed by the Customer, the Customer shall inform Bloomsbury of the grounds for such dispute within seven days of delivery of the Goods or Services and shall pay to Bloomsbury the value of the invoice less the disputed amount in accordance with these payment terms.

14. Deposit

Where Bloomsbury requires payment of a deposit for the Goods or Services, the Customer acknowledges that the deposit is not returnable.

15. TAXES

All fees are exclusive of taxes which will be added to invoices where appropriate.

16. Delivery

Bloomsbury will be entitled to charge the Customer for any expenses of delivery other than normal postage charges.

17. Electronic Delivery

If an order is, at the Customer's request, sent electronically, the time recorded on the sending equipment shall be deemed the time of delivery, system delays notwithstanding. (NB - electronic dispatch can be provided only on request and at the Customer's risk. Bloomsbury reserves the right to substitute conventional delivery methods without notice or penalty should electronic dispatch prove inconvenient.)

18. Cancellation

In view of the nature of the Goods and Services offered, any order - once confirmed by Bloomsbury - is not cancellable. Cancellation of the Order by the Customer will only be accepted on condition that any costs, charges and expenses already incurred, including any charges that will be levied by a sub-contractor on account of its expenses, work or cancellation conditions will be reimbursed to Bloomsbury forthwith.

19. Notice

All written notices to be served on or given to the Customer shall be sent or delivered to the Customer's principal place of business address, and shall be treated as having been given upon receipt.

20. Loss or Damage to Goods

Bloomsbury will take all reasonable steps to ensure the protection from loss, damage or destruction of the Goods or Services it supplies to the Customer (or which may be received from the Customer).

BLOOMSBURY FURTHER WARRANTS THAT THE GOODS AND SERVICES WILL BE SUPPLIED USING REASONABLE CARE AND SKILL.

26. Limitation of Liability

26.1 To the maximum extent permitted by law, Bloomsbury shall not be liable for any loss, injury, claim, liability or damage of any kind resulting in any way from (a) any errors or omissions from the Goods or Services; (b) the unavailability or interruption to the supply of the Goods or Services or any features thereof; (c) any Customer use or misuse of the Goods or Services (regardless of whether the Customer received any assistance from Bloomsbury in using or misusing the Goods or Services); (d) the Customer's use of any equipment in connection with the Goods or Services; (e) any failure in performance in the Goods or Services beyond the reasonable control of Bloomsbury; or (f) any negligence of Bloomsbury, its employees, contractors or agents in connection with the performance of its obligations under this Agreement.

27. Customer Indemnity

The Customer shall fully indemnify Bloomsbury against any liability to third parties arising out of the Customer's use of the Goods or Services.

28. Force Majeure

Bloomsbury will not be liable to the Customer for any loss or damage suffered by the Customer as a direct result of Bloomsbury, its sub-contractors or the list-owner from whom the sample or other Good or Service is derived being unable to perform this Agreement in the way agreed by reason of cause beyond its control including Act of God, accident, war, riot, lockout, strike, flood, fire, epidemic, pandemic, power failure, breakdown of plant or machinery, delay in transit, postal delay, or any other unexpected or exceptional cause or circumstance.

Hello Jennifer,

First off I do appreciate the time and thought you put into your email. I've added your concerns to a discussion we will be having with the Provost and Lisa Stock tomorrow afternoon. In the meantime, if you have invoices which are coming due, please send them onto Accounts Payable and let them know I approved them to come in that way while we work this all out. Thanks, Scott

Subject: RE: Vendor Invoicing Procedures

Hi Scott,

Happy New Year—hope you had a restorative break.

I'm working through the implications of the procedural change you announced just before break with the Library acquisitions team. As procurement is an embedded, core function of the Library (ordering, receiving, and creating a controlled inventory of physical and virtual items), having vendors submit invoices to AP directly without our acquisitions team receiving/reviewing them first creates a number of problems. I'm hoping you may consider making an exception to this policy for
