Automationdirect.com Inc is not required to, and does not, collect sales or use tax in any state except Georgia. Your state law governs if you purchase tax exempt products and may exempt them because they were made over the internet or because the seller is not required to collect in your jurisdiction. But tax based on the sales and use tax laws in your jurisdiction may require you to review untaxed purchases and if any tax is owed, file a state return and pay any tax due. Visit your state's website for more information.

Many states now require we send you an annual notification by January 31 of the following year that summarizes your purchases with us in the previous calendar year to help you file your use tax return. Please be aware these states also require we report this information to their Department of Revenue with an annual statement that includes your name, billing, shipping address, and the total dollar amount of
