Commercial Customer Agreement

You received your DIRECTV Commercial Customer Agreement with your order confirmation. The Commercial Customer Agreement describes the terms and conditions upon which you accept our service and upon which we provide our service. Please consult the Commercial Customer Agreement for complete information about billing and payment on your account. The Commercial Customer Agreement is available at www.directv.com/commagreement.

Errors or Questions About Your Invoice

If you have a question about your invoice, please call or write to us as soon as possible. You must contact us within 60 days of receiving the invoice in question, and you must pay undisputed portions of the invoice by the due date in order to avoid an administrative late fee and possible disconnection of your service. We will not report your account as delinquent or take any action to collect the disputed amount while your dispute is under investigation. We will make every effort to resolve claims informally. Any claims not so resolved may be resolved only through binding arbitration, as provided in the Commercial Customer Agreement.

When you provide a check as payment, you authorize us either to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your account or to process the payment as a check transaction. We may issue a draft against your account for the amount of the check if we cannot collect the funds at first presentment.

Returned Payment Fee

If your bank or other financial institution refuses to honor the payment, draft, order, item or instrument you submit to pay this bill, including electronic debits to debit cards and bank accounts, you may be assessed a returned payment fee of the lesser of $30.00 or the maximum amount permitted by applicable law, which may be in addition to fees imposed by your bank or financial institution.
