Good morning and Happy Friday!

Please find the attached invoice approved by Dr. Del Rosario for payment. Also find attached the exception that was made for us to send these ourselves to you rather than having our consulting agency do them.

Thank you and have a nice weekend,

Diana,

I believe for the time being we can make an exception for this vendor. I know you are dependent upon this vendor for your operation right now and do not want to do anything to disrupt that at the present time. I'm also assuming this is a temporary situation which will work its way out. Joyce, please put this on the exception list.
Thanks, Scott

Subject: RE: Vendor Communication Directive

Hello Joyce and Scott,

Your email reminded me of a question I have from one of our contracts. We use a consulting firm for expert staffing support in financial aid, College Aid Services. Before paying them for an invoice we have to review the timesheet that accompanies the invoice for accuracy. They have that invoice and timesheet set up as an automated process that gets released to one email, it comes together to my assistant for review.

If we email them to release an invoice with attached timesheets to invoicing@cod.edu, then we will not get the timesheets to check that the hours charged in the invoice are correct, and that may lead for sending a payment that is inaccurate if we are removed from the process.

Can we request an exception on this situation due to the timesheet review needs, and have my office submit the invoice after the timesheet portion has been reviewed?

I appreciate your consideration in this situation.

Subject: Vendor Communication Directive

Dear COD Colleagues,

In our continued efforts to streamline payment processing and adhering to internal policies, we are requesting all vendors to submit invoices directly to invoicing@cod.edu. Invoices will continue to be routed electronically for approvals.

We have discovered that some invoices are being e-mailed directly to various individuals at the College. This can cause invoices to potentially be missed. And in turn, could lead to service holds or interruptions, and lastly, delays in payments. Should you receive an e-mailed invoice, please kindly respond to your vendor contact copying and pasting the below verbiage.

Thank you for your invoice.

The College of DuPage is making considerable efforts to move towards a more efficient and streamlined process for our vendor payments. Per our Purchase Order terms and conditions, please submit all invoices directly to our Accounts Payable Department.

Invoices must be sent in PDF format to:

invoicing@cod.edu

We do understand this will take some time and effort before all vendors adhere to this new policy. And, there may be some exceptions, i.e. invoices dropped off on package delivery. However, we will address those on a case by case basis.

We will be distributing letters to all of our vendors communicating this change. The letter and e-mail documents will be posted in the College of DuPage portal under the Financial Affairs team site at the following path:

<https://inside.cod.edu/organizations/org-finaf/Pages/default.aspx>

I have attached a copy of the letter as well for your convenience.

Thank you for your cooperation,
