To be considered for the ICISP scholarship, I affirm that I meet these eligibility requirements:

- I have eligible for and have applied to an ICISP study abroad program.
- I have included my most recent official or unofficial college transcript.
- I have included a typed, double-spaced essay (750 word maximum) addressing the following:
  1. In what specific ways will the ICISP program benefit you in your academic studies, major and career?
  2. In what ways will you benefit personally from your study abroad experience?
  3. In what ways will you help promote study abroad at your college and in your community?
  4. Discuss any relevant issues, financial or otherwise, that may help the selection committee understand your need for financial assistance.

If awarded a scholarship, I agree to complete the following activities within one month of program completion:

- Submission of the ICISP program evaluation
- Participation in a video-recorded interview by ICISP
- Submission of 2-4 study abroad photos with descriptions/captions

I authorize the ICISP Scholarship Selection Committee to confidentially review my scholarship application, essay, and transcript. If I am awarded a scholarship, I agree to allow the use of my name, biographical information, and post-program activities for publication and on the ICISP web site and social media.
