

Enhanced 2+2 Agreement between College of DuPage and Lewis University leading to a Bachelor of Arts degree in Middle Level Education in Social Science.

Who Can Enroll in the Program?

- Students who have completed an associate's degree with the specific required courses. (See specific course list on the reverse side)
- New students interested in completing a Bachelor of Arts degree in Middle Level Education in Social Science from Lewis University in partnership with COD.
- Students who graduated from COD and went elsewhere can be considered for the program if they complete an associate's degree with the required courses. A transcript evaluation needs to be completed by both schools.

Program Overview

- This program results in a bachelor's degree in Middle Level Education in Social Science. Graduates of the program are eligible to apply for a state of Illinois Professional Educator License with an endorsement in Middle Level Education in Social Science.
- The first semester of Lewis University classes are usually held on the COD campus.
- All required field experiences for Lewis University courses are assigned by Lewis.
- Lewis University College of Education programs are approved by the Illinois State Board of Education.
- With this 2+2 program, students pay College of DuPage tuition for College of DuPage courses.
- Lewis University courses are offered at a significantly reduced tuition rate.

(Academic Plan on back.)

For more information contact:

Justin Hardee

Transfer Coordinator
College of DuPage
425 Fawell Blvd.
Glen Ellyn, IL 60137
(630) 942-3977
3plus1@cod.edu

Joan Williams

Director of Advising/Licensure Officer
College of Education
Lewis University
(815) 836-5268
williajo@lewisu.edu

