

Online Teaching Training Schedule: Summer Term

Learn more about online pedagogy, using Blackboard, and more!

Grade Center III: Test

Wednesday, June 17, 2:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

This is the third of a series of workshops on Blackboard Grade Center. This workshop is intended for all COD instructors who want to utilize Blackboard's Test tool to create tests and grade student submissions, regardless of instructional delivery modes.

Register in Cornerstone

Grade Center IV: Rubrics

Tuesday, June 23, 2:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

This is a one-hour face-to-face workshop, and the 4th of a series of workshops on Blackboard Grade Center. This workshop is intended for all COD instructors who want to utilize the Rubrics tool for grading assignments. Prerequisites: Completion of workshops "Bb Grade Center II – Assignment" or familiarity with the Assignment tool.

Register in Cornerstone

Foundations of Online Teaching

July 6 to August 7, Online

Designed for Faculty and Administrators, the focus of this online course hosted in Blackboard is on being an effective online facilitator. Topics include: Developing your online course environment, Effective communication online, Techniques to build instructor presence, Media in the online environment, and Adaption and accessibility. This fully online, traditional format Blackboard course offers best practices and techniques for creating an engaging and successful online experience.

Register in Cornerstone

Grade Center V: Weighted Grades

Thursday, July 9, 12:00 to 1:00 p.m.

Come to this session to learn more about what Blackboard can do for you and your weighted grades.

Register in Cornerstone