

Standards of Academic Progress

Status	Standard	Result	Progress
Academic Warning	Attempted less than 12 College of DuPage undergraduate academic credits with cumulative GPA less than 2.0.	Meeting with counselor strongly recommended . Standards of Academic Progress discussed.
Academic Probation I	Attempted 12 or more College of DuPage undergraduate academic credits with cumulative GPA and semester GPA less than 2.0.	Appointment with counselor required . A registration restriction will remain on student's record until cumulative GPA reaches 2.0 or higher.	Student will no longer be on probation once cumulative GPA is 2.0 or higher. Until then, the student will be on Continued Probation.
Academic Probation II	After one semester on Probation I status with cumulative GPA and semester GPA less than 2.0.	Appointment with counselor required . Enrollment limited to not more than 13 credits , and may include the following options: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Course choice equal to number of credit courses successfully completed with C grade or higher during previous semester. And/or if no courses were successfully completed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Repeat of courses with D or F grade. • Developmental courses (0 level). • Career/personal development courses, i.e. Education 1105, 1110, 1115, Human Services 1105. • Studio/activity courses, i.e. physical education, art, music. A registration restriction will remain on student's record until cumulative GPA reaches 2.0 or higher.	Student will no longer be on probation once cumulative GPA is 2.0 or higher. Until then, the student will be on Continued Probation. A full-time course load is not guaranteed at Academic Probation II status.
Academic Suspension I	After one semester on Probation II status with cumulative GPA and semester GPA less than 2.0.	One semester suspension. This lasts for one semester after the term during which the GPA triggered the suspension (excluding summer). When final grades are posted, student will be withdrawn from current semester courses and will be issued a refund. A registration restriction will remain on student's record until cumulative GPA reaches 2.0 or higher.	If reinstated, after serving one semester of automatic suspension (excluding summer) student follows Probation II status limitations. Must submit an appeal for approval to return. Neither reinstatement nor a full-time course load is guaranteed. Until the GPA returns to a 2.0, student will be on Continued Suspension.
Academic Suspension II	On Probation II status for one semester with cumulative GPA and semester GPA less than 2.0 after returning from one semester automatic suspension.	12 months automatic suspension. A registration restriction will remain on the student's record until cumulative GPA reaches 2.0.	After serving 12 months of automatic suspension, if reinstated, student follows Probation II status with limitations. Must submit an appeal for approval to return. Until the GPA returns to a 2.0, student will be on Continued Suspension. Neither reinstatement nor a full-time course load is guaranteed.
Suspension Appeal	Student serves either one semester away for Suspension I or 12 months away for Suspension II.	Student must complete an Application for Reinstatement to College of DuPage form if requesting to appeal length of suspension. Forms are available online or from the counselor.	Student will be notified via email and letter regarding the outcome of the Reinstatement request within ten (10) business days informing him/her of the committee's decision.

Once a student is restored to good standing, and if subsequently the cumulative GPA drops below 2.0, the student will re-enter the Standards of Academic Progress at Probation I status. Definitions: GPA: Grade Point Average is based on completed credits (no W's, no I's are computed). Audit: Not counted in GPA. Withdrawal: Not counted in GPA. Incomplete: Not counted in GPA. Attempted: What classes you were enrolled in and a grade given.

| NOTE: Student's academic history will not change, specifically the failed grades and prior academic standing for the term.

REVISED 3/30/15 |