

Name:

Finding and Evaluating Information

1) What is your research question? Explain the “unique” aspect of your country’s energy consumption.

2) First Source: List here, using either an MLA or an APA citation.

a. How does this source help to answer your research question?

b. Is the source credible? Discuss 1) any bias in the writing and 2) the author’s background.

3) Second Source: List here, using either an MLA or an APA citation.

a. How does this source help to answer your research question?

b. Is the source credible? Discuss 1) any bias in the writing and 2) the author's background.

4) Third Source: List here, using either an MLA or an APA citation.

a. How does this source help to answer your research question?

b. Is the source credible? Discuss 1) any bias in the writing and 2) the author's background.

5) What other information do you still need to find to answer your research question?